So You Want To Be A Theatre Director?

Synopsis

As artistic director of English Touring Theatre (the company of the moment – "Daily Mail"), Stephen Unwin has worked with hundreds of different actors in a multiplicity of venues. In this book, he takes readers step-by-step through choosing the play, casting, design, rehearsal, running the play, putting it on stage and on to opening night.

Customer Reviews

Stephen Unwin founded the English Touring Theatre in 1993.

This book truly takes you through the steps and considerations needed to become a theatre director. If you are thinking about entering the field it will help you consider carefully how to navigate the road. There can be no guarantees of success, but it will certainly help prepare you and get you to think about what is required artistically, emotionally, and administratively. Great attention to format and clear and easy to read.
