Long-Distance Cruising: The Ocean Sailing Handbook

Synopsis

Aimed at anyone taking a sailing yacht on an ocean passage or extended cruise, this book complements a detailed text with graphics to explain the practical aspects of sailing and seamanship. Five sections systematically cover the cruising yacht, boat electrics and electronics, yacht handling, meteorology, and navigation. Fold-out practice charts and tables are included, and the book ends with advice on boat and crew management. The author is an experienced long-distance sailor who has twice circumnavigated the world.
