Sleeping Bootsie (Step Into Reading)

Synopsis

Scat! Scram! Stay out! That's all Bootsie the stray cat hears when she tries to find a place she can call home. But then she meets Meg, a laundry maid at the nearby castle, who knows that a pet is exactly what the royal family needs. Everyone agrees, except one spiteful fairy. Bootsie falls under her spell and into a deep, deep sleep. Will Meg figure out how to break the magical spell? The engaging characters and easy-to-follow plot makes this furry fairy tale just right for children who are starting to read on their own.

Very cute story. My granddaughter enjoyed it very much my grandson love it!

These books are great for the beginning reader. I highly recommend.

Very cute book. My daughter loves it.

hilarious story - perfect 6 year old humor for a newly confident reader kind of boring, my child only wanted to read it once and never again afterwards...

my daughter like it .

Lovely pictures illustrating a charming story that would be good reading material for a child at this reading level. I recommend it to parents, children and teachers.
