Customer Reviews

"Winter Tales, goes to new heights, offering basics and some little-known historical insights. Those interested in snowshoes won't feel left out . . . And to add a more modern element, Watters also includes snowboarding opportunities." -- Bill Loftus, Lewiston Morning Tribune "Buy it as a guidebook for the trail. Enjoy it as an entertaining history book at night. [It's] the standard by which other [guide] books are judged." -- Cross-country Ski Magazine "It has a well honed sense of place, a nice appreciation for local folklore centered around the long snowshoe and a commitment to sport that is integrated with the environment." -- RAIN Journal of Appropriate Technology "Obviously thoroughly researched through firsthand knowledge ... easy to read maps and scenic photos." -- Daryl Gadbow, The Missoulian "Pick up a copy of Winter Tales and Trails . . . You'll not only get a complete guide and review of trails, but you will also learn about the rich, colorful history of skiing in the region. Much of Watters' writing is action: you'll catch your breath through the tales of early trailblazers. But the challenges laid by these tales is clear and you will be compelled to see for yourself the ghost towns and scenic vistas Be sure to get a copy--you are in for a grand adventure." -- Lisa A. Jackson, Eclectic Book Reviews
