Customer Reviews

As the host of A Prairie Home Companion for over forty years, Garrison Keillor has captivated millions of listeners with his News from Lake Wobegon monologues. He has been honored with Grammy, ACE, and George Foster Peabody awards, the National Humanities Medal, and election to the American Academy of Arts and Letters.

Garrison has been my traveling companion on the road for probably 100,000 miles. He's almost become like a best friend to drive along with me and tell me his stories to keep me company and make the miles go by faster. Many times, I find myself pulling into a gas station on the way and sitting in the car for a few minutes because I want to hear the story he's telling at the moment. Great story teller.

This show has such wonderful songs and stories.

Great traveling companion.

Garrison is the best.

Love prairie home companion

It was all about the music, which was good, but I expected some of the skits in an Anniversary album

Has it really been 34 years since APHC first showed up on the air? If you aren't old enough to have been a fan of the original series- or if you've been turned off by the increasingly dark tone of the show in recent years- you owe it to yourself to listen to this wonderful collection. In the early days, Keillor still seemed excited to be a part of a radio show, rather than coming across as a dour preacher lecturing us. The acts were a cross section of traditional music, and Lake Woebegone was a wonderful little town full of curious characters and businesses like Bertha's Kitty Botique and the Sidetrack Tap. It was a place you went to to leave the modern world- not a source of metaphor for Keillor's political opinions. I had the album many years ago, but lost it in an apartment fire back in the 1980s. I'm thrilled to own a copy again.

Great Entertaiment
