Customer Reviews

This is a very important book for anybody living in a modern society. Our minds are so overwhelmed all the time and this book will teach you how to clear your mind and finally feel relaxed again. It helped me to understand my negativity and to turn it around. I love how this book helps you to reveal the causes of your mental clutter and then shows you how to unclutter it. The part for achieving inner peace was extremely meaningful for me as I am quite a nervous person. This is more than a book about clearing your mind. It is also a mindset book that will help you become more successful in your daily life by eliminating the unnecessary.

A good book. What I really liked about it is that it dedicates a lot of pages to negative thinking. It's not just stay positive/don't worry be happy, but it actually explains the psychology behind this issue and provides real practical strategies behind it. I am using the strategies proposed in the book for quite some time and they really helped me in my personal life.

I'm reading this book right now and all I can say is WOW! What a life-changing book! I love the way it's written and explained without a bunch of theory - just simple, powerful strategies and explanations. "DECLUTTER YOUR MIND" is exactly what I need to move forward in my life. I'm going through this book forward immediately and work my life plan as I do - totally knowing exactly what I want my life to look like and that I'll get with help of this awesome publication.

Very in depth guide on how to de clutter your mind and brain. It covers everything from why your mind is cluttered, types of clutter, what to do to get rid of it, and how to develop oneself to be a better person overall and reach inner peace.

Last week my cousin told me about this book and after hearing from her, I was so curious to know more. It didn't take long to read this book entirely. This book really impressed me with its well written contents. The author describes how to declutter our minds and shows some simple but effective ways to do this. By the help of this book, I have learned about how to reframe all my negative thoughts. It helped me to get a better understanding about how to maintain a declutter mind and its importance in keeping stress and negativity away. Throughout this book, I have learned some effective strategies as well. If you want to learn the habits, actions and mindsets to clean up your mental clutter to increase your productivity, then don't hesitate to read this book!

This little book is really wonderful. The authors give such clear and wise directions for simplifying and organizing our hectic schedules and duties so as to reduce stress and anxiety. The step-by-step plans make so much sense and with real determination really can be followed, leading to a greatly improved, healthier, happier, more satisfying life. If you find yourself feeling overwhelmed sometimes and an pious many times, you will love this book.

This book is an easy read that gives doable steps for living mindfully and ridding unnecessary baggage from daily routines.

Marvelous book, very readable. I would recommend it for the younger generation that seems to be so "stressed out".
