Charles Hoffer is Professor of Music at the University of Florida in Gainesville. He formerly taught at Indiana University, served as president of the Music Educators National Conference, and is an established author of books and articles about music.

I teach Music Appreciation online for a small community college. I wanted a textbook that represented the topic well and yet was not too costly. I have used Hoffer since the 3rd edition. I like the way the material is organized within the book. I can easily fit everything into a six-week semester, a 9-week semester, or a 16-week semester. The textbook is well written and covers music history well. The 5th edition includes more graphics than the 4th edition, and explores 21st century music in more depth. I will keep using Hoffer as long as I teach this course.

Nice overall. The cover was ripped and it had some other damages but nothing had to do with the content, it was alright. But it was a rental so not bad.

Prior to reading this material and listening to the CDs I had little knowledge of nor appreciation for music; however, I have learned enough in 5 weeks to greatly appreciate and enjoy music more than ever before.

GREAT SELLER!!! AS DESCRIBED!!! FAST SHIPPER!!! A+A+A+

Only comes with 2 of 6 CDs. I was surprised to know the first day of classes that I was 4 short, made the semester a lot harder than necessary.
