Customer Reviews

I love the musical, and was glad I finally found the libretto.

This book was purchased for a friend who loves Broadway. I have NOT personally read the book, but had no issues with the shipping... so I rate it 5 STARS!!!

Word 4 word; lyric 4 lyric!

We ordered this book for our son for Christmas because he had been in a local production of RENT. We tried endlessly to find the script, and this was recommended. My son absolutely loves it ~ he would have it framed if he could.

i have always loved rent, have seen several different productions in several languages, and can mentally watch those productions as i read the play. (i also own a copy of the play in german, which has helped my language skills immensely, to say nothing of my german vocabulary!)it is such a sad story, and yet evokes such happiness and love that it can't really be called a sad play. i think the saddest part of it is that jonathan larsen did not live to see the first performance, the tremendous world-wide success of his work, or to accept his pulitzer. it is one of the few works that transcends any performance and any medium.

Needed "Rent" by Jonathan Larson for school and the book came in good timing. Good read if you are a fan of the production.

nice

Love it !
