Customer Reviews

Al E. Gator is an alligator who lives in a Louisiana bayou swamp with his family. Al is sweet and kind and everyone loves him. Al loves everything about his friends, his family and his swamp – everything but swimming underwater. Since swimming underwater is an important skill for an alligator to have, Al's fear of underwater swimming poses a real problem for him.

Al's parents patiently try all sorts of things to help him get over his fear, but nothing seems to work. Will Al finally get over his fear? Readers will have read and find out. As always, I love Uncle Amon's books. I've read many of the books to youngsters and they never fail to impress and entertain them. Al E. Gator is no exception. The content is age-appropriate and written with a wonderful mix of easy and challenging words – great for building those vocabulary skills! There are several short stories included here, along with the usual puzzles, jokes and other entertaining activities for kids to enjoy. A wonderful read and definitely worth the download!

I love these books written by Uncle Amon. They are short, sassy and funny. I purchase them for my grandchildren who can't wait to hear the latest of these fascinating stories. We enjoy the jokes at the back of the books which, by the way, are age-appropriate (that is, from the youngest child to grandmother!). Uncle Amon's books are an ideal way to encourage children to read or to be read to. The stories are short, they are funny and the illustrations are crisp and clear. I can't wait for our next installment.

Al lives in the Louisiana Swamps. Just where you would expect an alligator to live. The problem is Al is afraid of the water. When his sister gets into trouble in the water; will Al be able to overcome his fear to help her? Cute story with a lesson to be learned. Children will love the story and get the lesson through the great writing.

I thought these were cool fun short stories of Al E. and his family and friends and their fun and scary moments in the Louisiana Bayou with a few illustrations. SO, I wish to recommend this for five stars and for kids ages 6-10 & or in grades 1-4. I received this book for free by the author and in return, here is my honest review.

Very fun and funny tales. I liked the message about being greedy.
