Customer Reviews

This practical, straight forward book is a valuable tool for students navigating what often seems to be an arduous and mysterious process. Through her acting coaching, Mary Anna Dennard, has helped numerous students get into prestigious theatre training programs across the United States. She understands the audition process and what schools are looking for. --Barbara Mackenzie-Wood, Dept. of Acting/Music Theatre, Carnegie Mellon University

Since 2000, Mary Anna Dennard has been a college audition coach for programs in acting and musical theater and founded the first-ever online prep for performing arts college applicants, collegeauditioncoach.com. As a nationally recognized expert in her field, Mary Anna has coached hundreds of students from all over the country, who have been accepted into the most prestigious college training programs in the United States and Europe.

"I Got In" is an awesome resource for students seeking to get into the best college musical theatre programs in the country. It is an easy read, but is jam-packed with excellent advice about improving your chances of getting into college. This is not just another list of bland suggestions of how to audition, but has extremely specific pointers on how to improve specific aspects of the audition and application process. It also has great information on the strongest programs nationally and how to match the student's strengths and goals with the personality of each school. Much of this advice is not intuitive to those who think they "know it all." Mary Anna has been coaching students for many years and really knows what she's doing. Her track record is amazing. Buy this book! It is a bargain and will dramatically (pun intended :-)) increase your chances of getting into the school that will best fulfill your dreams.

Fabulous and absolutely ESSENTIAL book for all high school students planning to major in Acting or Musical Theatre!! This book should be required reading for Performing Arts students and Parents. Wish I knew about this 3 years ago! This is a quick, easy read with just the facts. Includes many resources at the end. It's a great handbook for students to use throughout their college audition prep training.

Very useful guide. Quick read, full of helpful, easy-to-follow advice. Resource guide at the back is especially good.

Great book - very informative!

Great resource; valuable insight. Really providing practical guidance into making the best decision.

This book investigates the aspects of searching, selecting & auditioning for college performing arts programs. Mary Anna Dennard brings up valuable points that one should consider in this process. There are additional opportunities to uncover on her website. I know several families that have used Mary Anna's coaching with favorable results.

If you are the parent of a child pursuing MT or Acting, you don't want to miss this book. There is so much information out there, and Mary Anna Dennard puts it all in one simple, easy to read resource. She gets right to the point about what to expect, what not to expect, what to do, and what not to do. This book is filled with tools that, if used, will surely give your child the best shot when approaching

pretty informative book that was helpful before auditions to a local performing arts center!
