Lansing: City On The Grand; 1836-1939 (Images Of America)

Synopsis

Lansing's history as the capital of Michigan began with a legislative mandate in the 1835 State Constitution, which required that the seat of government be moved from Detroit in 1847. The result-the emergence of a new capital city on the banks of the majestic Grand River-allowed Lansing to cultivate a world-class community based in government, education, the automotive industry, and entrepreneurial achievements. This book features more than 200 historic photographs that document the dynamic capital city during its pivotal first century, from the pioneer era to the inception of the Olds Motor Vehicle Company and through the eve of World War II.

Very nice item as listed - Prompt & Courteous Transaction A+++

A great source of information about early Lansing. Too bad that so many of these buildings are gone and hardly any of the old homes were saved.

I grew up in Lansing but haven't lived there since 1959. This book is just what I hoped it would be: A most engaging pictorial history of my former hometown. I especially enjoyed seeing (and reading about) the earlier versions of buildings and other sites with which I was familiar during my youthful days in the 1950s. It was a fun read for me!

LOVE IT!!!!

This book is a very complete History of Lansing Michigan from 1836-1939. It is well written with interesting details of the city. If you are interested in the History of Lansing Michigan I highly recommend this book.
