Customer Reviews

Teora is a children's books publisher.

Excellent book for teaching the difference between good and bad manners. I bought this book to use as a "social story" for my son with ASD. He likes the book (words and pictures) and seemed to understand why the bad manners were "bad" while the good manners were "good." I highly recommend this book and its partner book, "Learn Good Habits with Jessica" for anyone searching for a straight-forward storybook about good and bad habits and manners.

Children of ALL ages could learn something from this book. I was raised to be a "Southern Gentleman" and so my mama gave me an etiquette for teenagers. It still works with me to this day.
