Customer Reviews

Found myself sharing my thoughts and reactions with friends and family. It's a very quick read that's loaded with opportunities for discussion.

Found this book very interesting and informative. It's a short read, because the author gets straight to the point. Recommended

I love learning new things and this read has given me many things to research further. I was just hoping to not feel like I NEEDED to double-check the credibility of the author's facts.

Average reviews and options based on Christ. I know that Christ was a Jew and NOT white but the explanations and options are very short and abrupt. Quick read with little impact.

Good book...too short though. It could have dug a bit deeper.

Good read from start to finish. Straightforward and informative. If you need a quick reference about the depictions of Christ throughout the centuries then this book is a good start.

I was looking for "more". The account of DiVinci, and C. Borges seems very plausible. The commissioning of the Sistine Chapel, uniformly "white" looking deities. People do make the image of God in their image. Recommended to those looking for historical reasoning and proof.

More of a art history and chemistry class review. Bottom line is that Jesus Christ became white due to racism and lust for power; still the same today.
