PreSchool-Grade 1-As evening settles over the jungle, baby animals stop their play and settle down for the night, snuggling close to their parents. Soft, full-spread illustrations in pastels capture the warmth and coziness of the families as night draws near. The gentle tone and rhyming couplets make this a good choice for toddler storytimes and bedtime reading aloud.-Sally R. Most beautiful illustrations and the sweetest little rhyming story to read to your little one before bed.

My kids love to read this every night before bed.

This book is adorable! The illustrations are probably the most beautiful I've seen, in my opinion. The words are calming and sweet. I've been reading this book to my daughters for about 7 years, and it's my favorite! I think I like it more than they do. We bought this copy to give as a baby shower gift.

My 15 Month old just loves it - so many animals to see and explore, wonderfully written. We also have another book from the same author - "Good night sleepy one", also highly recommended.

I bought a hardback of this book when I was pregnant with my (now) 8 year old daughter. It was one of my favorite bedtime books for her. The rhythm of the words is soothing, the drawings are beautiful and I love how the sky gets just a bit darker in each scene as the sun sets. I have purchased the padded board book for a soon-to-be mother so hopefully she and her daughter can enjoy it as well!

I have a 18 month old and a 3 year old and they both love this book!! My 3 year old got it for her first Christmas and has loved it ever since. When she ripped one of the pages I replaced it because it is her favorite bedtime story! I found out later that it does come in a board book which I am getting for my 18 month old who also loves this book and recently ruined the second one! The pages are colorful and have great pictures of animals which my kids love. The story is cute and fun! I highly recommend this book to add to any child's library!

It was very helpful in getting our baby on a routine for sleeping through the night.

This delightful cardboard page book is a perfect size for little hands to hold. The rhyming text is something a young child would enjoy. The beautiful drawings depict baby animals in their natural habitats getting ready to go to sleep as the day ends and evening arrives after a colorful sunset. This book makes an excellent getting ready for bed book and is a great addition to any child's library.

I bought this book when my daughter was born 8 years ago and we still read it at least once a week, I have it memorized. It puts both of us to sleep, I seriously can't read it without yawning. I buy a copy for every baby shower I attend now.
