Carrie Finn never thought that she would write books, much less books for children. However, after spending so much time with her 13 nieces and nephews, something must have rubbed off on her. Sheâ™s now the author of 10 titles for Picture Window Books. Carrie has been teaching college writing since 1999 and continues to enjoy helping others with their writing. She stays busy by throwing pottery on the wheel, playing the piano, baking bread from scratch, and talking to the miniature donkeys on the farm near her house. Carrie currently lives in Waterloo, Iowa, with her husband and trusty sidekick, Dan.

Great book! We have been reading this series to our 4 yr old and he is starting to use better manners.

Great for the beginning of school year to stress the importance of manners and how to behave in school!

What a PERFECT book collections for a toddler learning about manners. He actually asks for us to read it to him!

I love using this book in the first week of school to introduce my students to school procedures. It's not too wordy for kindergarteners.

A great story to read to students at the beginning of the school year.

Excellent book for preschoolers.

Good story for my kindergarten-er to follow. He talks a bit and this story is good to read to reinforce class rules

Excellent book for teaching young kids; my four year-old grandson likes it a lot.
