Customer Reviews

Calling this a guide is too generous. Even if every word of the 'introduction' is true, "The places listed in this book are the most positively reviewed and recommended by locals and travelers from around the world." it is virtually useless if you're a hungry out-of-towner looking for a place to eat. The listings are based on a next to useless ranking system, 1-500, presumably based on quality. There are no sorted categories like location, type of food, children's menu, alcohol service and days and hours open. It does list after the ranking, the name, type of cuisines, average price, address and phone number. If it had a map with locally used designations for different parts of town and were alphabetically listed you wouldn't have to look through the whole book to find the one you're looking for.
