University and the Art Center College of Design. She began working as a freelancer illustrating for magazines and newspapers, and teaching children in the arts, eventually venturing into children's book illustration. Her inspiration comes from her highly active young son, as well as her strong interests in music, nature, and family history. In her spare time she likes to create things with fabric and cardboard for fun—game boards, telephones, record players, violins, dollhouses, just about anything she can think of! After residing for many years in the Los Angeles area, Simone currently lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Heartwarming tale that all new moms will love to read to their baby. Made me tear up a little sharing all the love.

I sent this to my daughter for her little girl who is one year old, and she loved it. They both loved it. Her daughter kept asking her to read it again "mo?" "mo?" Destined to be treasured!

The illustrations and storyline about mommy loving baby is just perfect!

How sweet love this little book/ thank you!

Adorable book.

Bought this as a gift for a newborn! Real nice!

What a beautiful book for little ones and nature lovers!

I haven't bought this book (yet), but we did check it out from our local library and we spent quality time with it. Though I can't speak for packaging or delivery quality (yet), I can comment on the value of the book itself--and let me tell you, it is high. The price listed here is totally fair for this book, given its size and form. The illustrations are so beautiful, I almost expected it to be more expensive. This is a great book and worth every pennnnnyyyyyyy. It is the sweet, original, lovely story along with the vibrant and artsy illustrations which sold me on this book. Love, Love, Love it.
