Debbie Macomber, the author of Hannah's List, 1022 Evergreen Place, Summer on Blossom Street, 92 Pacific Boulevard, and Twenty Wishes, is a leading voice in women's fiction. Three of her novels have scored the #1 slot on the New York Times, USA Today, and Publishers Weekly bestseller lists. Debbie Macomber's Mrs. Miracle was Hallmark Channel's top-watched movie for 2009. Winner of the 2005 Quill Award for Best Romance, the prolific author has more than 140 million copies of her books in print worldwide.

I often read aloud with my husband; it's like watching a Hallmark movie, but we can talk and laugh without missing any of the dialogue. This book by one of our go-to authors did not disappoint. The Cedar Cove setting was familiar and the story line took an interesting turn with historical significance. The sub-characters kept the story going along and provided a couple bumps along the way to the main character. The WWII sub-plot was so interesting and left us reflecting on how that and other life stories were left for the telling.

I like all the Cedar Cove books. I like the way the story was told and how it was tied in to the couple who was hearing the story. I would recommend it to anyone who likes Debbie Macomber's books.

When the length of the book wasn't listed in the description, I should have known it would be a novella. The story was okay and I like Macomber's writing but I feel cheated when a book is so short or when it is a cliffhanger and that fact isn't mentioned in the description because I don't buy either one.

This is Cedar Cove we are talking about! Plus its a Christmas book. So yea, this book is great!

Very good book. Kept your interest from first page to last. Recommend to read it.
