My son is in 2nd grade, and he's the perfect age for this series. We read them aloud when he was 5 and 6 and they held his attention, but they were too long for him to read independently. The entire book is spent building up to the "fight", so I wish the fight itself lasted longer than 2 pages. It's always over in the blink of an eye. I do like that they are a little open-ended. It makes for some good discussion after the book is over. If your kid likes non-fiction, I highly recommend this series.

My 9 year old needed this book for his school report on whales. It's a pretty interesting, fact filled, and exciting little book.

My kids love these books.

This is a great book

My 7 year old loves to read these books. He loves to learn new facts about animals.

The Who Would Win books are my absolute favorite of all time! They make learning about each animal more relevant by comparing the two and then save the "fight" for the end (which is tame, don't worry). My 3 and 5 year olds love these books and we do too!

My wife's fifth grade class enjoyed it and found it useful for a project.

I highly recommend these books for 7-10 year olds. Our kids love them and talk about them regularly!
