Book by Dercum, Edna Strand

Where to begin? If you love skiing, biographies, westerns, history, the Rocky Mountains, inspirational, or just whatever. This Book has it. The way in which Edna writes it makes it very exciting and you feel almost as if though you had just left Ski Tip Lodge, and she just told you this story. Having been a Ski Instructor in Breckenridge, I would recommend this book to all of my students. It just encompasses a bygone era, but somehow is still relevant today.

growing up in that era I knew most of the people involved and stayed at the ranch. Great to think of the days of the pioneers of the sport and see where it has gone. Quick enjoyable read. Anyone that has been that direction would enjoy this true story.
