Customer Reviews

These tabbed books are perfect for my 2 year old grandson. He absolutely loves them and he can't rip out the pages. He insists on having them when he is sitting on his potty. ;-) They are great to take to church to keep him from going everywhere too. Although he is two, so he points and repeats the animals incessantly! It's great! Have about 10 of these books.

We've been going to the zoo almost every week now for the past couple of months and I wanted to get my son (1 1/2 yr old) a book that he could look at animals in when we were at home. This book fits the bill. I do agree with the one mother who commented about the font used to write the names of the animals is not the best if you are teaching your child to read. For us right now it is more of a picture book to look at and remember and reinforce the names of the animals then learning to read.

My son LOVES these books. Easy for him to turn pages. He knows almost every animal in this book, and he's only 17 months. Highly recommend.

The pictures are great but I have a 4 year old who is learning to read and the font they use is hard for him. It confused him at first because it is artsy and some letters look backwards. Like an i looks like a backwards j. Hard to explain, just wished they used a different font.

these tabbed books are very durable as your kids will handle them every day You will how to tell stories and teach skills to your kids

My toddler loves pointing out animals in books, so I thought this would be an excellent choice for him to be familiar with several animals. The book didn't disappoint: the pictures are big enough and very high-quality.

Love, love, love it!

We love books, and these were no exception!
