Synopsis

Couldn't decide which one you like more between writing & drawing? ...What about the book that gives you the BEST of both! In this very book, "Draw & Write Primary Journal for Girls to Write and Draw in: Children's Fun Writing & Drawing Activity Notebook for Kids Ages 4-8 to Journal Her Day, Sketch Thoughts, & Compose Her Creative Stories!", every child will be given the ability to: Journal her days: When it comes to kids journaling, drawing make it easier for kids to grab a pencil and start doodling. This book starts with the blanks to fill in the day, month, and the year of journaling, then followed by a nice big space to illustrate each journal entry, and the next are the lines for her writing and sharing her thoughts, events, and feelings. Moreover, this book would serve as a great busy book for kids while travelling since she can sit and sketch for hours, to draw and write about her adventures! Practice her handwriting: The head line (at the top), the foot line (at the bottom), and the (dotted) belt line in the middle are helping gauge where a letter should be which is the standards of handwriting exercise. All the lines in this book comes with extra line spacing, which makes this book even more practical for a child to practice her handwriting, and more so it is a plus for any grownups, often times grandparents, to be able to read the stories with their child and spend quality reading time together with them. Moreover, the drawing box alongside each writing practice page makes writing more fun for every kid! Create her earliest graphic novels: With a box to draw and color pictures on the top half of every other page, and the lines to write their description on the bottom half of the page and the full page that follows, every girl would be encouraged to explore her creativity and to sketch out her first illustrated stories that will soon become her masterpieces! Plus, the "My Stories" page serves as either the table of contents page or as the author biography page for the young little author & artist to describe about herself! Develop her work collections: This "Draw & Write Primary Journal for Girls to Write and Draw in" comes with two noticeable places for a girl to write her personal book volume number (one at the front cover and the other at the book spine), so once all pages in a book is used up, she can continue seamlessly on the next "Draw & Write Primary Journal for Girls to Write and Draw in" by simple indication of her book volume number on the being used up one, then continue on the next!
