The Best Seat In Second Grade (I Can Read Level 2)

Synopsis

Sam has the best seat in second grade—right next to George Washington, the class pet! Sam brings his hamster buddy on the class field trip to the science museum—but disaster strikes when George jumps from Sam's pocket into the museum's Hamster Habitat. Carter's expressive watercolor illustrations help bring the kids in room 75 and their furry pet to life, commented Kirkus. This Level Two I Can Read is geared toward kids who read on their own but still need a little help.

K-Gr. 2. Sam considers that he has the best seat in second grade--right next to the cage of George Washington, the class hamster. When the students embark on a field trip to the local science museum, Sam takes along a little "something extra," George. Inevitable disaster strikes when the hamster jumps from Sam's pocket into the museum's Hamster Habitat. Luckily, Sam knows his furry friend well enough to pick him out of the sea of the museum's busy rodents. Kenah has created an appealing cast of characters whose actions ring true. Sam is properly contrite after George's close call with danger, and his teacher, Mr. Hopper, metes out a punishment that is both firm and fair.

Carter's watercolor illustrations add to the story's appeal and will make this entry in the I Can Read! series a popular choice for emerging readers. Kay Weisman Copyright © American Library Association. All rights reserved --This text refers to the Library Binding edition.

• Carter has an energetic line; her watercolor and gouache figures fairly dance off the page. • (Kirkus Reviews (for MY HIPPIE GRANDMOTHER)) • Wacky, off-kilter illustrations serve this humorous tale well. • (School Library Journal (for SLITHERY JAKE))
