Tiffany's Swedenborgian Angels: Stained Glass Windows Representing The Seven Churches From The Book Of Revelation

Synopsis

At the turn of the 20th century, the Louis Comfort Tiffany Studios was commissioned to create stained-glass windows, based on the seven angels in the book of Revelation. This book describes the beauty and symbolism of these windows, including the biblical as well as inner spiritual meaning of the windows and their unique details.

Customer Reviews

"I am very impressed by the amount of research that [the book] synthesizes and presents in such digestible form. It's a beautiful piece of writing that spans scholarship, meditation, and spiritual guidance."--Lynne Ambrosini, Ph.D., Chief Curator, Taft Museum of Art
The book of Revelation has more to discuss than doomsday prophecy. Tiffany's Swedenborgian Angels: Stained Glass Windows Representing the Seven Churches from the Book of Revelation discusses the art behind the book of Revelations, created on stained glass windows by Louis Comfort Tiffany. Presented in full color with connections to the theories of Emanuel Swedenborg connected strongly, Tiffany's Swedenborgian Angels is of strong interest to anyone with a fascination with religiously-inspired art and the book of Revelations. --Midwest Book Review, Wisconsin Bookwatch, August 2011 very fine book explaining how the windows demonstrate great spiritual messaging from the Old Testament as interpreted through the Swedenborgian faith.

It is a beautiful book with all those superb illustration.

terrific.small bookon subject

Excellent Product and Service

while the subject is the tiffany windows ,the only chapter that is about the windows is the last one . other than a primary photo of each window there is little to show the real beauty of these angels . the historical background is very nice . but overall the book reads as more of a church guide than glass history .

Excellent book
