Arthur Newhall had a unique and varied background in the lettering and graphic design fields. His work included type designing, theater lobby displays, movie titles, sign painting, advertising art, lettering for reproduction, and art for screen printing. He also worked as art director for an advertising agency. All of these disciplines added to the refinement of his calligraphy skills. A stickler for precision and style, Newhall was always ready to help and guide the novice as well as the professional. He was one of the innovators of one of the most spectacular letter styles ever created--the Cartoon Casual--as well as a Modern Script of the 40s and 50s. Eugene Metcalf's career as an artist-designer has been punctuated by national and international awards. Metcalf's natural talent in the various art fields has established him as a top calligrapher and designer. Lettering design became a specialty leading him to the creation of logos with a variety of commercial applications. Of his more than 30 years in the commercial art industry, almost half of them were spent as art director and top designer for major outdoor advertising companies in the Los Angeles area. In the past several years, Metcalf has been a freelance artist in the full spectrum of commercial art, including national magazine covers.

Great kit, lots of different inks. I wish the book explained more.

Guide book was not great help.

daughter loves it, She now found a great way to sign her name. New signature out of this and has fun making borders for cards. Happy she has used it each day since Christmas. I enjoyed it myself.

Excellent - A++ service

Bought this as a gift, and the recipient was very happy with it. I wish it came with more paper and supplies, but overall it was pretty good for a beginner kit.

Omg this is such a great beginners set!!! So happy with it I couldn't put it down I'm already out of ink!!!!

Was looking for a starter kit as this was identified for beginners; however, I found it a little difficult to work with for the beginner...
