Anita Anderson Endsley is a 35-year veteran performer of professional musical theatre, opera, and television. She has performed on regional stages across country, appeared in Gullah Gullah Island, All That, and Scooter for Nickelodeon Studios, as well as having commercial credits and starring in the PBS docudrama The 27th Star. While performing three seasons with Atlanta Opera she appeared in Tosca, The Merry Widow, Madam Butterfly and La Traviata. She also performed major works as a free-lance concert vocal soloist. In addition to performing, Anita has enjoyed six years as a professional choreographer and director. Anita is currently a free-lance producer and talent manager for Copper Horizon Entertainment as well as an Entertainment Manager for Disney's Hollywood Studios. She has held adjunct positions among the theatre faculty at the University of Central Florida and adjunct voice faculty at Valencia College. As author of Inside the BFA Theatre and Dance Degrees and Performing Arts and Rubrics and Program Templates, she lectures at Theatre and Education conferences. Anita holds an MFA in Musical Theatre from the University of Central Florida and a Ballet Teaching Certification from the Royal Academy of Dance.

This book is a life saver! I am a high school choir director and constantly have students asking for help finding music for their thespian festivals or auditions. Instead of wracking my brain with my limited knowledge of musicals, I can simply look in the section that matches their voice part and everything is in one place: voice type, character type, song type, everything! This book has already made my life easier and my students are thrilled with the choices. This is a must-have!
