Customer Reviews

Paula Hammerskog is a communication consultant and the author of several books. She has been an avid knitter for many years and lives in Sweden. Eva Wincent has been running her own knitting business for twenty years. She is among Swedenâ "s most prolific and respected knitters.

I really enjoy these patterns. I like the varieties that are given as well as the variations in each. The patterns are classic in design so, they won't be out of style in a year or so. I have a library of out dated patterns that was given. I have tried to bring them into classics. On line I've discovered patterns that are classics from early 18 & 19th centuries. This book is a fantastic edition for any library. I really like that the sizes are for the actual sizes of a child and not the sizes found in retail.

All good patterns in this book. Next to the Debbie Bliss Kids books of knits, I think this one is a good one and a keeper.

looks interesting

Very good book with a variety of sizes and styles -- easy to more detailed. Something for everyone with small children!

Nice patterns. Looking forward to knitting many of them.

A great book with some really cute patterns.

Haven't done anything in it yet, but the designs are cute.
