Customer Reviews

My 9 year old grandson requested a book for Christmas Carols for his clarinet. He just started playing and is doing extremely well. This book was perfect and greatly appreciated!! Wonderful gift!

Great book. It is easy to read the music. The graphics on the cover are beautifully done. I can't find anything to complain about. Giving this to our daughter for Christmas.

I was very excited to get this book for my 5th grade niece who has played the clarinet since mid-September. There are some great tunes in here, with a wide variety of them! Since there were no pictures of pages (front/back cover and listings only), I had to rely on the description and reviews. What a mistake! As a band director, I should have known better!!! I am now convinced the 2 reviews are made up!First, the 'author' is some random musician who plays keyboards and such. Great! But if you are going to publish a book with your name on it, know what you are doing for the instrument (clarinet) before you publish. MOST songs in this book ARE NOT for beginners.Reasons this is not a beginner book:1) there is one song in the book that doesn't go over the clarinet break (B and C). All other songs go over the break, which most clarinets have not learned yet, in December, as September beginners).2) key signatures... One sharp, fine. One flat, good. Nothing in key? Perfect! FOUR SHARPS?!?! Are you kidding me? On clarinet? Many second year players don't play in Concert D (E major for clarinets). 'Maybe' a second year orchestra... maybe. But 1st and 2nd year BAND, and probably 3rd year too, will play in D major!3) Range... someone please tell me what average beginner plays up to Bnatural over the staff?So... if you have a WAAAYYY above average beginner, this book could be fun for them. Me, I'm writing some of these tunes down and transposing others... because it would be a bigger pain to return the book than hope she can use it next year.
