My Sitter Is A T-Rex! (We Both Read - Level 1-2 (Quality))

Synopsis

Mom and Dad rush out the door as soon as the new babysitter arrives - but the new babysitter is a T-Rex! In this very funny story, a boy deals with the scariest babysitter ever. First he runs and hides, but when the T-Rex starts to wreck the house, he gets mad. In the end, the boy and the T-Rex clean up the house together and the boy even asks his parents if the T-Rex can come back again. Very humorous illustrations complement this fun-filled adventure.

Customer Reviews

We love all of the We Both Read books, but my daughter especially loves this title because of her current interest in dinosaurs. This story begins when the parents leave a young boy home for the evening with a T-Rex for a babysitter. The relationship between the two gets off to a rocky start, but despite their differences, the young boy learns to empathize with the difficulties associated with being a ginormous dino. If you haven't experienced a We Both Read book before, you should definitely look into the series. It allows parents and children the opportunity to read together by taking turns with the narrative; the adult page is intended to be read by the parent while the child page is written at the reading level indicated on the front of the book. Further, key vocabulary words used on the child side are often first used on the adult side and bolded so the adult can point them out, making the reading process interactive and educational.

This was a gift for my grandson. He loves it.

Very enjoyable storyline

It's a cute story about not judging people by their appearance. I like the format having a page for me to read then an easier one for my child.

These books helped my son learn to read when he was struggling. Truly a blessing his teacher told us about them!

Hilarious!
