The Class From The Black Lagoon

Synopsis

Another title in the bestselling Black Lagoon series--now with an eye-catching new look for Trade! It's another scary day at the Black Lagoon . . . for the new teacher, Mrs. Green. There's a new class coming for the first day of school and Mrs. Green is worried. Is it true that the class is really weird and that they put their last three teachers into early retirement? Will the students really turn into horrible ghouls as soon as they get to school? Will Mrs. Green really need her ultimate survival kit to teach the class or tame the class?

Mike Thaler was born in Los Angeles in 1936. After moving to New York City, he started his professional career drawing cartoons for adults in 1960. A children's book editor saw one of these cartoons and encouraged Mike to write for children. Since then, Mike has written over 140 children's books and has become known as America's "Riddle King." • Mike says that writing and riddles are a powerful way to stimulate a child's interest in learning and creating. He is an award-winning author and illustrator and has been called "one of the most creative people in children's literature." • Mike currently lives in Canby, Oregon. Jared Lee has illustrated more than 100 books for young readers. He has received awards from the Society of Illustrators, the Martha Kinney Cooper Ohioana Library Association, the National Cartoonists Society, and others. He lives in Ohio with his wife and a menagerie of dogs, cats, ponies, ducks, and a few unknown creatures.

Used it in a prize basket for "Shadow the Teacher for a Day"

My 4 yr old brought home "The teacher from the black lagoon" and enjoyed it because we could explain that the little boy was just dreaming. He also liked this book because the teacher is Mrs Green from the first book and the things the students do are not as graphic as in the other books. He did NOT like "The Nurse from the Black Lagoon" it was a more graphic and could not be explained away as a dream. He's just a little too young for that one.

My daughter enjoyed reading this book and that says a lot. Great story!! I will be looking into the series too.

This was a great book to introduce on the first day of school. I used it with my third graders to talk about what my expectations for them should be the entire year, and we did an anchor chart to go along with it.

My kids love this!

As before - very enthusiastically received - read by two 7 year olds while waiting at the dentist - they loved it - got the humour especially the 'dot the 'i's cross the 't's illustration - wanted more....fortunately I have bought 3 more for their birthday.

series is hilarious. school children love it.

working in a first grade classroom, i can totally relate to a lot of this! Too funny!
