Costel Puscoiu was born on August 29, 1951, in Bucharest Romania. He studied at and graduated from the Ciprian Porumbescu College of Music in Bucharest, majoring in Composition and Theory. In Romania he worked as a music teacher, and for some years he was a conductor and researcher at the Institute for Ethnology and Folklore in Bucharest. He was also a member of the Society of Romanian Composers. His compositions include symphonic music (symphonies, cantatas, and a concerto for viola), chamber music (string quartets, a sonata for clarinet and piano, contemporary pieces for several ensembles, music for pan flute), choir pieces, and film scores. His compositions are often influenced by Romanian folklore and Byzantine liturgies. He has also contributed to several musicological and folkloric studies and articles. In September of 1982 Puscoiu moved to the Netherlands from his native Romania. He is now working in the Music School department as a pan flute teacher and a leader of an orchestra at the Free Academy Westvest in Delft. He has also become a member of the Dutch Composers Association. --This text refers to an out of print or

It was a waste of money. There is no video/CD/or Audio included. The you tube and internet sites listed would not come up, rather a new site for private Email is listed. I can get instruction from people on You Tube with out buying a book. That old saying,"you get what you pay for."

Now what I was hoping for . . .

The book itself was a disappointment. There was not a lot of helpful information in it. However, the real value in the book was the links to the video tutorials on Youtube. The video tutorials were very informative.

it's ok

I received the book with my flute and it is soooo helpful to me as a beginner on pan flute

Book would not open up into a readable size on my PC with Windows 10. All my other books open properly. Despite everything I tried, I could not enlarge the image to readable size.

Great book for someone just learning the pan flute!

It was a gift, he said he loved it
