Dr. Kravitz has been an instructor for PESI Healthcare conducting programs for healthcare professionals as well as the Mandel School of Advanced Social Sciences at Case Western Reserve University. He conducted a program on dealing with difficult patients for Hadassah Hospital in Israel.  Susan Schubert builds group harmony through teamwork and diversity, solving problems, and increasing leadership skills. Schubert is a facilitator and trainer with a B.A. in English from Hofstra University and an M.A. in Public Administration and Community Leadership from Central Michigan University. She is co-author of the Crisp Series books Managing Upward and Emotional Intelligence Works. Susan is an adjunct professor with the Graduate School USA conducting courses on internal consulting for United States Government Agencies throughout the U.S.

Easy to understand lingo even if you are not in the medical field. Good information that anyone can use if not for a parent or friend, then maybe yourself!

This is a great book for helping those working with challenging patients and those who love them. I look forward to learning more from it.
