Customer Reviews

"Fit for a king | Biesty brings a jeweler's eye to his seemingly infinitely detailed illustrations." – Publishers Weekly "Another browsing item extraordinaire | The wordless opening and closing spreads are alone worth the price of the book." – School Library Journal "Another Biesty marvel | technically a gem." – Kirkus Reviews

This is a fantastic book for anyone looking for a better understanding of castles and middle age life. This book is highly entertaining and full of many details that catch the eye upon multiple look-throughs.

My 30-year-old son still remembers it as one of his favorite books growing up--and he was not a book-lover. Very intricate drawings that are easy to understand; fascinating and fun and will keep your child interested for hours. Great book!

Our son, age 10, is obsessed with these cross section books. Every page is crammed full of fascinating detail....these are wonderful books.

Super cool illustrations.

I was not sure my 12 year old grandson would be impressed by this book. I had seen it in the library several years ago and as an adult found it educational and interesting. My grandson is a bright and mature youngster and he enjoyed it completely. It looks like a picture book but it is more than that.

It's great

Love it,totally happy, would highly recommend!

Enjoyed these as a kid and now I'm enjoying introducing them to my son.
