Customer Reviews

Redleaf Press: Redleaf Press is a leading nonprofit publisher of exceptional curriculum, management, and business resources for early childhood professionals.

Food program provides calendar but this is the only one I use. I've tried to use others a few times but always after a couple of months give in and buy this one again. Will buy this for next year in November.

Best thing to keep track for daycare and when your adding totals for tax time!!!

This is awesome for keeping track of everything daycare related!

great resource keeps me organized

Great product at a good price.

I have used this for bookkeeping my childcare business for many years and my tax preparer is always impressed with how organized I am. I give the credit to this book. I highly recommend it. I have tweaked it to work for me and use the parts that I need so it is easily adaptable to any home childcare business.

This is a must have for all child care providers, licensed or unlicensed. It answers so many questions and keeps all of your income and expenses in order, making tax time so much easier. I have used this product for 3 years or more, at least. It is DEFINITELY worth the money.

Amazing way for family daycare providers to stay organized. It's simple and easy to use even for beginners who don't know what they are doing like me
