Customer Reviews

If you are serious about playing the Blues, this is one of the best investments you can make. It's a logical, precise step by step building process- packed with usable Riffs, Theory and Technique. There is not book out there that comes close. Richard Daniels is my Blues Guitar Guru. See for your self. I read it cover to cover before I started studying the lessons. There is a clever story-line threaded throughout the book which makes this an adventure. "Blues Guitar Inside and Out" by Richard Daniels has my highest recommendation.

this is a great book for any serious blues student no matter what your level. i particularly like the style its written in and the first part of the book that gives all the background iformation. then keeps the instruction going througout the book in a dialouge fashion. this is an excelent book for any blues inthusiasts library.

Simple to understand, a good springboard for further exploration, a respectful approach to this mysterious music, filled with good ideas and an enlightening perspective, soulful and reverent, a blessed beginning point for a blues education.

All the fundamentals of the Blues wrapped up in a sweet story of an old Blues man passing on his substantial knowledge of the art to the next generation. A worthy read for anyone aspiring to learn Blues guitar, and lots of history and music theory for those that already have. Highly recommended!

This is a great book for anyone looking to learn the blues It's in story form about an old man teaching a young boy to play blues guitar with lots of scales, Cords and 50 blues licks bought it used but looks new shipping was very fast which I really like, I would buy from or recommend this seller to a friend anytime.Thank You

3rd time owning it and love the history the book presents. Great book!!!
