Customer Reviews

When purchasing this book, it might be nice if the publisher were to "publish" the songs that are included in this book. It took me quite awhile to find them so I thought I'd share with others so you can compare to other books/CDs that might be available. No one wants to purchase books with duplicated songs.

A couple of these were arranged kind of weird if you know the original, but most of them were quite nice. (Even the weird ones weren't necessarily bad, just kind of weird.) The accompaniments were adequate on all of them, and actually really nice on a few. (Not just a rehashing of what's on the radio [i.e., boring], but not changed up so they wouldn't be recognized.) I don't think this is going to take over as my favorite book to play out of at church, but it has some really nice tunes to add to my repertoire.

The book has a nice selection of songs. Each song has a play along version and another version with a sax playing so you can hear what it sounds like. I was quite excited about the book and the quality of back ground music, but as I played through the songs I became less enthused. For me, the problem is that songs just seem to end too abruptly. There is no final high point, the music just ends. It is hard to put emotion into the song without a good closing point.

We bought this for our church band. I love it. I bought one in each key, and piano. They are interchangeable.

This book is full of such fun songs that aren't too difficult to play. I would say for a 2nd-3rd year player (flute) it should be a piece of cake. However some of the songs require the other instrumental parts because the flute, and probably the piano and clarinet parts, do not always have the melody. Great overall though! Came quickly too!

Love this book!!! Great that it has a play along CD. Would prefer online track playalong though.

Always lovely sheet music

Love the songs
