The Complete Western Stories Of Elmore Leonard CD

Synopsis

From Elmore Leonard, the author who has influenced more writers than any other, come two thrilling stories of law in the Old West, upheld by the barrel of a six-gun. "Three-ten to Yuma:" Deputy Paul Scallen will earn his one hundred fifty dollars if he can get his prisoner Jim Kidd on the train to Yuma Prison. But the members of Kidd's gang have determined that Scallen won't live long enough to make the Three-Ten to Yuma. "Saint with a Six-Gun:" Bobby Valdez will hang in the morning and young Lyall Quinlan is proud to guard him through the night. But Valdez doesn't seem like a cold-blooded killer and his request for last rites may just set him free ... or get them both killed. Performed by Henry Rollins, these classics of bullets and bad men demonstrate the superb talent for language and gripping narrative that made Elmore Leonard one of the most acclaimed writers of our time.

Elmore Leonard wrote more than forty books during his long career, including the bestsellers Raylan, Tishomingo Blues, Be Cool, Get Shorty, and Rum Punch, as well as the acclaimed collection When the Women Come Out to Dance, which was a New York Times Notable Book. Many of his books have been made into movies, including Get Shorty and Out of Sight. The short story "Fire in the Hole," and three books, including Raylan, were the basis for the FX hit show Justified. Leonard received the Lifetime Achievement Award from PEN USA and the Grand Master Award from the Mystery Writers of America. He died in 2013. Henry Rollins joined the band Black Flag in 1981. In 1986 he formed the Rollins Band. His publishing company, 2-13-61, has released more than a dozen books, several CDs and DVDs of his own, and the work of others such as Henry Miller, Iggy Pop and Nick Cave. He has performed in several movies and TV shows including Bad Boys II, Heat, and Drew Carey.

Those who enjoy Leonard's terse two-fisted style will savor his early work with Westerns. Cleverly cast with skilled actors and produced with sensitivity and style, this collection fits in any audiobook aficionado's collection. David Straitharn paints vivid and passionate word pictures, pushing the emotional envelope; Henry Rollins brings his burly reading style to the fore; William Atherton delivers a whiff of aural mesquite and rawhide while Tom Wopat lends a tough warmth to the proceedings. Each reader tackles his tale with professional zeal, and the marriage of voice to text makes this a consistently good listen. Leonard fans will be intrigued by signs of his future hipness. D.J.B. This was a great short story collection that served its purpose well. It brought me great joy and is on a sharing journey now as I share with my friends. Good stories that explain why they were made into movies.

Mr. Leonard is/was the master. Settings, dialogue, pace, and story, are all combined to present captivating stories far better than the usual western fare.

They were good stories but didn't seem to be in the correct order . If you like short stories it was ok

Product as promised!

Great for long car trips.

You gotta love Elmore LeonardHe is my opion one of the best authorsI am a huge fan of his

This CD came in perfect condition. It's the title that gets you. Even though it's called The COMPLETE Western Stories of Elmore Leonard...this is just 2 stories from the book. It was my fault for not reading everything. So pay attention to what you buy!

Only two stories!my bad I suppose. I thought he wrote more! Screen play for "3:10 to Yuma" was a greatly expanded version, I suppose.
