My 10 year old daughter has been taking piano for two years and her teacher recommended this book as a Holiday supplement. It was wonderful. She has absolutely loved playing these songs. They are quite simple. They include duet music for the teacher to play along with the student. I would highly recommend for the early piano student.

My beginner student enjoys it a lot. Many of the pieces are already known to them and both their family and themselves love it! Very easy to start for beginner students since they stay on one hand position. There are sharps and flats at some pieces, and according to the faber piano adventures level 1, the student won't have learned about those until in the middle of the lesson book. The accompaniment goes well with the pieces.

I love the Faber series and use it with almost all of my piano students. I like to use their Christmas books for my students because then I know that they will be exactly at the same level that the student is on in their regular books. This has very nice simple arrangements.

As a piano teacher I have been using these Faber & Faber books for many years. The kids love being able to learn songs they know and it gives them incentive to practice more. The Christmas songs go over very well, as do the entire line of Playtime, Chordtime and Showtime books. I would recommend this book as well as the entire line.

This book is a great one to go along with Faber's other music instructional books. It has favorite Christmas songs arranged in a simple way that is compatible with her other first grade materials. I have found that my students especially enjoy the teacher/student duets.

I'm a piano teacher. Any Faber Supplement books are great to add to students curriculum. They add interest, and can be used for recital pieces.

Great christmas intro for piano.

The book is great - but when postage is added it end up being more than a store bought one
