May Magic (Calendar Mysteries, No. 5)

Synopsis

From the author of the popular A to Z Mysteries comes a story of magical mayhem featuring the younger siblings of the A to Z Mysteries kids! May is for Magic... In the fifth book of the Calendar Mysteries - an early chapter book mystery series - twins Bradley and Brian are celebrating Mother's Day by treating their mom to a hypnotist's show. But when the Pinto family gets home from the show, the twins' mom starts acting strange. She splashes in the bathtub for hours, she leaves corn kernels all over - she even quacks! Bradley thinks his mom has been hypnotized into believing she's a duck! Can Bradley and Brian, with help from their friends Lucy and Nate, turn their mom back into their mom? Parents, teachers, and librarians agree that these highly collectible chapter books are perfect for emerging readers and any kid who loves mysteries!

RON ROY has been writing books for children since 1974. He is the author of dozens of books, including the bestselling A to Z Mysteries and Capital Mysteries. When not working on a new book in his Connecticut home, Ron likes to teach tricks to his dog Pal, play poker with friends, travel, and read thrilling mystery books. Visit him online at RonRoy.com. JOHN STEVEN GURNEY has illustrated many books for children, including the entire A to Z Mysteries series and Scholastic's popular Bailey School Kids series.

My husband and I read these stories to my daughter at bedtime. The kids solve mysteries and use critical thinking skills to solve problems.

Great !

All my sons have read every book this author has put out. Love his books. Good for kids around 6 - 10 years old.

To quote my 7 year old son, "It was awesome! I loved it a whole bunch". He's also a big fan of A to Z Mysteries.

My class enjoys reading this book.

Grandson loves the whole series

Funny story! Number 5 in the series Calendar Mysteries, I found this to be well-written, interesting, with ample illustrations, dialog and varied text. Hypo the Magician is coming to town, and six-year-old Brian, Mrs. Pinto's son, wants his mom to go and get hypnotized. His ulterior motive is to have her influenced to like ducks, so she will agree to let Brian raise ducks so he can make and sell pillows. During the show, Mrs. Pinto gets changed into a duck, and when she is transformed back to her mom self, she remains duck-like which sends Brian into a panic. The surprise ending is nicely done. I will definitely recommend more of Ron Roy's books to my young readers!

"May Magic" by Ron Roy. Calender Mysteries. Brian wants to raise ducks, but in order to convince his mom to let him do so, he thinks he needs to get her hypnotized. Hypo the hypnotist is coming to town. He and his friends, Nate and Lucy, encourage his mom, Pamela Pinto, to go on up stage to be hypnotized. The main point is to hypnotize her so that she will let him raise ducks. But will it work? Will the hypnosis work? Will she indeed let him raise ducks? Brian gets a lot more than he bargained for. You do not want to miss this book and find out what happened next. These calender mystery books feature twins Brian and Bradley (younger brothers of Josh), Nate (younger brother of Ruth Rose), and Lucy (younger cousin of Dink). And in case you're wondering who Josh, Ruth

Rose, and Dink are, they are the main characters of the A-Z mysteries. These books have a certain warmth and coziness to them. I have read all of the A-Z mysteries, and I love those three main characters. In those books, the reader is introduced to the younger siblings. I love these kids, and they seem like family to me. These are some great books, folks.
