Customer Reviews

Excellent text for a Native American studies course. Quick read, yet very impactful. Had my students read this!

Excellent and meaningful read!

A good read of a girl to woman reclaiming herself from other's idea of what she should be. Being told to be 'other' than what she was born to be and growing up believing she needed to be what she was told to be. Then finding herself and following her spirit, writing to tell her story and thoughts, sharing this with us. Wonderful.

This is a horrible book
