Kummer, F.A. - Six Duets, Op. 156, Volume 1 - Two Cellos - edited by Walter Schulz - International M

I love these duets. They are very playable. It pull them out when there is another cellist to play. I pull them out and play them at the end of my lesson with my teacher. Very pleasing to the ear. They can teach fingering, bowing, rhythm, etc.

It is not the version edited by Walter Schultz. It doesn't have the same letter markings as the version edited by Walter Schultz, so if you are playing with someone who has that version, it will be hard to find the same place if you stop somewhere within the movement. Other than that, it is fine. It would get 5 stars if the correct editor was listed.

This should have been a 5 stars instead of 4 due to the incorrect info that was given. The copy that I had received is not edited by Walter Schulz. Although the music is the same, the layout out is different.
