I own all 3 of these (the 4th, says Lillenas Music, is coming out in early 2012 - can't wait!). These are a really good compendium of praise music, even quite current praise music, which we use in our church services on a regular basis. As song leader (read: pick music, compose it if necessary, prep it with other musicians, and lead it in the services), I don't think I could do the job without these books. Not all songs are written in the form of what you might hear the artist sing on their album (not all of the repeats, etc.). This generally makes them more usable in a church setting. The accompaniments are suitable for the average pianist, and the chords are usually spot on. On my wish list would be these same books with just lead sheets (I've read there's a word's only version, but that is not useful to me - I need the melody, chords and words). One drawback is that some of the songs are repeated between the books, but I guess that's ok if you are not purchasing the entire set like I have.

Very well kept book. Will be of great benefit to our praise&worship and fellowship. Vendor is prompt and accurate. Will gladly do business again given the opportunity

These are classics and the choruses are ones that honor Jesus.

Great resource. Lots of old yet popular tunes for praise and worship all that i expected and more, i recommend these books they are great.

Lots of contemporary music that has a fast tempo but not over the top. not your Grandma's Hymnals but nice enough for the 40's to 50's crowd to enjoy. I'm playing them in church the congregation loves them.

Disappointed in getting this Christian song book as it looked almost identical to the spiral bound music copy of this book. often has really good prices so did not think much about the "too good to be true" regarding the price but from now on I certainly will be extra extra careful!

Meets expectations...great for Church!
