The Berenstain Bears run, kick, and score goals as they share their love of soccer.

I really thought this book was terrible. Mama just cares about winning and eventually learns that it's about having fun. But, I just felt like everyone knows mama really wants them to win and is signing them up for all these games, and it just was not a good read. I didn't even read it with my son.

I thought that since my kids love the show on PBS that they'd love to read the stories too, but we've only read it once since it has arrived. It didn't make the favorites list for my 3yo or 5yo.

Since my grandson is just starting to read, he loves these books and I would highly recommend them to those little ones just starting out.

purchased as a gift. read it a few times first to my son. Very cute.

grandson loves this book

Great book!
