Customer Reviews

"Chris Fabry gives another memorable performance of a relationship guide from Gary Chapman. With his understated emotional presence and seamless connection with the author's message, Fabry has the aura and pacing of the relaxed, articulate teacher the author happens to be. Chapman is a gifted storyteller whose down-to-earth wisdom on family life is based on Christian concepts of authority, obedience, love, and charity. In this realm, he is on the kind and gentle end of the spectrum. Chapman's lack of judgment, pretension, or intellectualization makes his discussion energizing and accessible. Using familiar but never syrupy examples, he describes every possible way we can put more into our family roles and motivate our family members to do the same."Â T.W. Â© AudioFile Portland, Maine

Good author with strong morales and beliefs! Christian values to teach about family! Definety very Christian based with strong family values and morales! I was very impressed to see some therapist successful based on applying very simple Christian views and morals who successfully formed their lives by applying a life style and role models taught to them through strong spiritual family beliefs! A definety give it high reviews!!! It's just ashamed we all couldn't live like that even though that is supposed to be that way! Why does it take a Norman Rockwell for us to have an ideal life!

Bought this while going through my divorce. While my marriage did end the advice in this book is great and I will put it to good use in my next relationship.

This a great book for those that want to create a great atmosphere for their family. I used a couple of principles on my children, specifically the love languages, and I saw an "immediate" impact on my children! I wish I had this book when my 17 year old was a little girl, but the principles in the book have impacted our relationship in a positive way. I'm finally speaking her love language and keeping her tank full.

Great book with great advice and helps!

I have become a huge fan of Mr. Chapman. His concepts are very helpful and nothing short of brilliant. Will be referring back to this often.

I am enjoying the book very much, I have not finished it yet but it is shedding light on some things in my own family that I had never thought about. The book itself was in very good condition and well worth the money.

Enjoyed reading the book and how the author did not have a perfect journey. the book is a very easy read

Good information so far. I wish he went into the Love Languages a little more because I had not read the book about that before listening to this. Good and gentle "tough love".
