Roger Priddy left school at 16 with just one qualification in art. He went to Berkshire College of Art and Design and trained as an illustrator. His first job in children's books was working with the publisher Peter Usborne, at Usborne Publishing, and then he worked with Peter Kindersley at Dorling Kindersley, where he spent 16 years. Priddy became Creative Director of DK's Children's Division and was Managing Director of the children's mass market publisher Funfax when it was acquired by DK. In 2000, he created Priddy Books with John Sargent at St Martin's Press to create innovative and imaginative titles for children, from first books for babies through early reference titles for older children. Since then, over 30 million copies of Roger's 200 plus books have sold worldwide, with five of his books—My Big Animal, My Big Truck, Happy Baby Words, Happy Baby Colors and Puppy and Friends—each selling over one million copies. He is also the author of Big Board First 100 Words; Big Board Books Colors, ABC, Numbers; and Bright Baby Noisy Monsters. His creativity has been recognized with numerous industry awards. Priddy lives in London with his wife Zena and their four children.

My daughter just turned 3 and she's known her alphabet for a long time but now she is very interested in words and the letters they start with. She loves going down the list; A is for Apple, B is for Ball etc etc. This book is awesome because it gives examples for each letter. For each letter there is a list of words and illustrations and stickers. My daughter absolutely loves stickers so the stickers make this activity book that much more fun for her. It's a fun and educational activity book and the price is a great deal! I think this book would be best for 2-5 year olds.

My 22 month old daughter loves to play with this sticker book. I bought this for her to look at while she potty trains and it has been a lifesaver. The stickers are colorful and the pages are illustrated well to keep her interested. Stickers are great for little toddler hands.

My two year old loved this book on the plane, train, in the car and on the plane some more. he wasn't able to peel the stickers off himself, so it was a group activity. The stickers do not stick permanently to the pages. They would probably stay if an adult put them on and hadn't been touching them for 5 minutes before sticking them down though. He liked that he was able to unpeel and restick them though. Whatever keeps 'em entertained, right?

For the $2.46 I spent, this book was pretty decent. Like some of the other reviews mentioned, a few stickers/words were an odd choice for the letter. Example: Q - "quiche" - sticker of a quiche cut like pizza. My 3 yr old, like most, are not going to understand what a quiche is. ANYWAY, the coloring section was fun, but the whole book only lasted for an hour. But, again, for such a low cost, it was fine.

Wonderful product! I am so glad I found this resource; it teaches letters phonetically, it expands a child's vocabulary, and is a great fine-motor activity. I've found the stickers to be sticky enough, and easy enough to find, even for my 3 year-old; she initially needed more assistance, and I still supervise, but she is becoming more independent at finding the stickers and matching them with the "shadow shape". We typically cover one letter at a time, including the coloring, and that is sufficient for a preschooler's attention span for that one activity. She will often choose this over other preschool activities we do in our homeschool.

I bought this for my 5-year-old son as an activity for a long flight. As soon as the book arrived I knew it wouldn't keep his attention for long. The sticker pages aren't perforated for tearing out of the book (which would be extremely handy). Instead, to get a sticker for page 5, for example, he had to flip to page 11, peel off the sticker, and then go back to page 5. It was too much back and forth for him and he lost interest after 2 stickers. Plus, the binding is very tight and the book doesn't stay open easily. If the book stayed open easily and the sticker pages were perforated for tearing out of the book, it would be a great sticker book.

Kept my toddler very occupied for a long plane ride. Unfortunately the stickers don't stay in place very well so they kept peeling up while we flipped the pages.

My 2 year old calls this her sticker book. She already knew all of her letters by sight so we are working on learning beginning sounds. Each letter has 3 stickers of an item that starts with that letter and the beginning sound is very easy to hear - B is for Baby & Butterfly. We have not done the coloring pictures that are in the center of the book - I'm planning on copying them so I can use those pictures for different activities whether it's coloring, tracing or maybe even a busy bag type of game (maybe matching the animal to a letter?). Anyway, G loves her ABC sticker book.
