Bought several of these books to get my 5 and 3 year old interested in reading at night. They love them! Can't wait until they can read them back to me:)

Kids loved them

Ok

cute toy story book

Great way to teach your little one to read. My daughter loves these books. They keep the little ones entertained with the pictures while getting her to visualize the worlds. She is very happy with it. I try to send her many Step-into-reading as I can.

Great for the beginner reader. My grandson loves toy story, so it keeps his interest when it's something he already knows about.

I love these learn to read books! My daughter is 5 in Kindergarten and these are great books to practice reading. She is able to recognize the "sight words" and we work on sounding out the bigger words. My son, who is 3, also loves these books! I have NEVER been able to get him to sit and listen to me read him a story, even when he was a baby. It worries me because I know reading is important! But these books he will let me read! I think it has to do with it being short and the recognizable characters.

This is working great with my 2 year old grandson. He LOVES Buzz! He refuses to talk due to his older brother does most of the talking for him, so I purchased this book - hoping he would repeat the words and it worked. He says Buzz and points to his picture. And will sit on my lap to read the book with me. It's hard to find Buzz items anywhere.
