Customer Reviews

Gray Malin is a photographer best known for his aerial beach photography, which he has transformed into a lighthearted, conversation-igniting, joyful brand. His work's sense of adventure and escapism has turned him into a household name. Malin is based in Los Angeles.

Thank you Gray Malin for this delicious book. I have been to several of these beaches and they bring back memories of happy times. Going through this book is calming and it makes me want to go to the beach! Next best thing to being at the beach on a hot summer's day!

This was a gift from my daughter. I think I have beach running through my DNA! Can not get enough beach time. Whenever I'm missing those sandy shores and salty air, these lovely pictures take me as close as can be/without being there! Love this book. Beautiful on coffee tables as well.

Stunning aerial photography is one reason you will enjoy Gray Malin's coffee table book, Beaches. Brief descriptions of these far flung, beautiful places make you long for the sand of a nearby beach. There is nothing like the serenity and carefree feeling a beach brings--I'll be looking at these images again and again and noticing lots of new things each time.

amazing coffee table book and gift!
