Great quality and awesome pictures however April and May have the same sand dune pictures and a lot of the descriptions underneath the other months are incorrect for what is shown. Obviously a printing error but should have been checked before mass produced and mailed out.

Beautiful calendar with rectangles large enough for us 70-somethings to see our medical appointments and our elderly dog's and cat's vet appointments.

I gave this beautiful calendar as a birthday gift to a family member who has everything. She loved it and stopped her party to look through every page. She will be traveling to some of the sights displayed next month.

Perfect calendar for size of days for writing in things, for paper quality accepting pen without skips, for beautiful scenery, for sturdy nail hole for the year, for full calendar printed on one page for reference. I buy one every year.

This is my 10th Sierra Club calendar. Love the pictures and the size of it. Easy to write schedules on it!

I've been buying this calendar for many years. I'm a landscape photographer and can really appreciate the photography in this calendar. I've visited many of the places shown in these calendars and find inspiration in the photography displayed. Helping the Sierra Club lobby to preserve these wild places is an added bonus. The calendar is printed on quality, heavy glossy paper with spiral binding. It hangs straight and true.

The calendar is nicely made. The pictures are pretty and the daily rectangles are plenty large enough to add notes and reminders. The calendar is longer than our usual one- make sure to check the dimensions, if size is a consideration.

As usual, the Sierra Club has produced a classically beautiful calendar with imaginative photos printed on high-quality paper. In fact, I buy these calendars because they're so good for writing on: plenty of space to write, and sturdy paper that hangs straight and doesn't curl with humidity (I keep it in my kitchen). The spiral binding also helps it remain flat against the wall (or fridge). Highly recommended.
