Customer Reviews

"Over the years, I have often wished there were more relevant, life-sustaining, inspirational, and meaningful rituals for Christians to use in a variety of situations. This book by writer and retreat leader Joyce Rupp arrives like a Godsend. With her keen sense of the Indwelling presence of God, the author is truly a gifted spiritual midwife. These soulful poems, prayers, and reflections for group or individual use are designed 'to revitalize the spiritual blood pulsating through the veins of faith.' ...Out of the Ordinary is an incomparable resource for spiritual directors and lay leaders of all stripes." --Spirituality & Practice

Joyce weaves familiar prayer traditions with contemporary life, gathered around themes that invite us to draw close to God." --Sr. Laura Swan, O.S.B., Editor of The Benedictine Tradition: Spirituality in History

An interesting and creative reflection that contains honesty and a real sense of the transcendent God in our midst. This is a place to reflect and perhaps even disagree at some deep level as we journey through our own pilgrimage. I find this work, as I have many of her books, a sense of poetry of the soul. Read and be entranced, stirred and spoken to in a new and ever changing way of our God who speaks through His children.

Great book.

When I need a devotional for a church group, it seems that this is the book I end up using. Joyce Rupp's words are so honest and heartfelt. Her presentation is always creative.

She is one of my MOST FAVORITE poets of all time!

Excellent resource for caring ministers.

A great value as a used book. It is in very good condition. Rupp connects spiritual musings with personal conditions very nicely. An ordinary situation can gain timeless depth. A divine thought can gain practical application. Not meant for a quick read-through. Rather, it's useful for slowing down, centering, connecting to eternal good.

arrived on time and the product is good

I have never been disappointed by Joyce Rupp's books and this one was no exception. It provides me with a resource for prayer services and also items for reflection.
